

If you use this data, please cite:

Jackson, AP et al. 2012. A cell surface phylome for African Trypanosomes. Manuscript submitted.

Fam40: Putative secreted protein

NOTES: Fam40 comprises 13 unplaced, putative genes unique to T. vivax. These encode hypothetical proteins without matches to known protein domains, but all family gene products have putative signal peptides.

The Bayesian phylogram was estimated from a multiple nucleotide sequence alignment of 726 characters, using MrBayes under default settings. The tree is mid-point rooted on two divergent sequences. Selected nodes are supported by posterior probabilities.